

Letter of Interest:

- (2.) Prepare a typewritten essay (1 page) that explains how you have demonstrated a "commitment to the field of communication" while at Colorado State University. This essay should explain how you would define "commitment to the field of communication," how you believe you have met this definition, and how you will be active in your commitment in the future. Examples of your commitment might include leadership within the department, leadership across campus that demonstrates a specialization in communication, exceptional service to the department, conscious choices for enhancing professional development that builds upon your specialization in communication, conscious choices for enhancing academic and/or professional development in the field of communication. Add your name, expected graduation date & email address.